

One of the reasons many people are overly stressed is because they feel they don't have control over the "what-if's" of life, especially as it relates to finances and their own immortality.

Learn how you can alleviate this kind of stress by being informed and taking action.

This is taking self-care to another level.

Topic 1: Pastor's Advanced Directives

Relieve the stress of not having any control of what happens to your family and your congregation should you become incapacitated.

Topic 2: Insurance & Other Financial Matters

Untangle misconceptions around insurance. Gain peace of mind concerning the future of your family and your congregation both now and after your passing.

Attend Seminars 1 & 2 in 2025 to maintain your eligibility to attend the all expense paid annual retreat in July.
